

Return to Box

TUESDAYS

12/9/52 to 3/2/53

YANKEE PEDLAR INN

7:59

The stage coach and the bustle are museum pieces in this fast-moving age----but delicious food and warm hospitality are NEVER out of date! In the friendly atmosphere of the Yankee Pedlar Inn , you'll be served home-cooked food, prepared from long-prized old-NEW ENGLAND recipes. Surrounded by authentic, early-American furnishings, you'll agree that they've brought "the good old days" to life again at the YANKEE PEDLAR INN on route 5 in Holyoke. Soft music is furnished by a trio of fine musicians in the cellar room by the old-fashioned brass-surrounded fireplace. ~~The room~~ The YANKEE PEDLAR'S warm hospitality is especially noticeable when you receive your third or fourth helping of lobster or steak!

So, the next time you feel the need of a delicious, home-cooked meal served in a leisurely and friendly atmosphere, stop at colonial YANKEE PEDLAR INN on Route 5 in Holyoke.

PLEASE SIGN THIS AFTER YOU HAVE READ IT:

| DATE | ANNOUNCER |
|-------------|------------------|
|-------------|------------------|

| | |
|-------|--------------|
| 12/9 | D. Greenward |
| 12/16 | B. Parker |
| 1/6 | Boo Barbour |
| 1/13 | K. Youngell |
| 3/2 | Goodward |

TUESDAYS

YANKEE PEDLAR INN